

About Qyooz

At Qyooz we are delivering a special kind of CRM. We are making the customer-vendor relationship sustainable and helping companies move away from the ineffective transactional sales approach. We are all about continuous and strong relationships and we support this within our team philosophy. We challenge ourselves to challenge the product to create a stage of mutual growth.

As a UX/UI designer , you will be responsible for shaping Qyooz in becoming more user friendly and be a key contributor in the journey towards achieving full customer centricity in all business aspects .

Your Role

UX/UI Designer (m/f/d) 40h /week

- Uncover usability issues and hurdles and apply creativity in improving them
- Design optimization of the desktop as well as the mobile app
- Close cooperation with fullstack developers and business development team
- Leading A/B testing and experimentation processes
- Menu navigation systems and use case development

Your Profile

- You are experienced in design and wireframing with tools such as Sketch, Adobe XD, Adobe Illustrator.
- You have experience in prototyping and using the respective tools for it, e.g. InVision, Figma etc.
- You have a deep understanding of people's visual perception and psychology
- Familiarity with the application of Human Centered Design methods
- Experience with HTML and CSS is a big plus
- Excellent verbal and written English (company language)

Benefits

Competitive Salary ● An international team ● Supportive co-working environment ● Home office ● Fun team events
● Office snacks and lemonade